CAUSE

Turner and Ms. Wise have experienced a very stormy and turbulent romantic relationship while on supervised release with this Court. The nature of their relationship has caused both of them to incur criminal charges which have since all been dismissed. The most recent one was the arrest of Turner on June 21, 2006, by the Hamilton County, Ohio Sheriff's Department in Cincinnati, Ohio on the charge of Assault which involved an incident with Ms. Wise. That charge was subsequently dismissed.

On August 23, 2006, a supervised release violation hearing was held on Turner in Your Honor's Court at which time, the Court directed USPOs Frommeyer and Backman to meet and develop language for additional special conditions for Ms. Wise and Turner that would direct both of them to stay away from each other.

On September 6, 2006, this officer met with Turner and his attorney, Ransom Hudson, Esq., to discuss the proposed modification. This officer explained his rights to counsel and a modification hearing. Turner stated he understood his rights and wanted to waive those rights because he was in agreement with the modification of the condition. He then signed the waiver form.

Mr. Hudson advised this officer that he has no objections to the proposed modification.

Based on these factors, this officer respectfully recommends that the Court grant the proposed modification.

Respectfully submitted,
